

Autumn's Leaflet

October
2011 • No. 149

Autumn is our favorite month of the year! We love the beauty of the leaves changing colors. Furthermore, Lynne and I met at the University of Georgia in September, first dated in the fall, and years later our daughter Autumn was born on the last full day of fall, December 20.

I always identify fall as the time my magic shows really took off because I did so many school carnivals and fall festivals. Can you believe that on two occasions back in 1968-69 I performed seven shows at five different schools in one day? It's the truth, but I'll never do it again. That's simply too much magic in one day!

As summer ends, we've survived here in Ginnville thanks to God's blessings. Autumn made another People-2-People trip with 33 middle school kids to Australia in July. Six months after surgery I am doing all my shows & workshops standing up! Lynne & I had a great Rome holiday with Brenda & Marty Hahne the last week of August, then Marty & I stayed to work the 8-city Italy lecture tour I postponed due to surgery. PTL, it all worked!

But the biggest surprise from Ginnville this fall — you're looking at them right now! — are the new GOSHMAN/GINN silks illustrated on this page! Take a look and a read:

Color Explosion Blendo PURPLE! Yes, I've always wanted a "Barney Purple" version of the blendo, and here it is! This will replace the sold-out green and nearly gone red blendos we made in previous years! Wave around a string of silks, crush them in your hands, and open them up to reveal a large 3-ft full color silk! Includes 36" blendo silk, six little 9" silks, and instructions. See our website tutorials for more! $35

NOW for the NEW 45-INCH SILKS! The great thing about these nearly four square foot silks is they don't cover you up when you produce them. Even a short lady clown or junior magician can hold the silk in front of her or him and still be seen, unlike the 6-ft silks. And the price is not $150, $100, not even $75! JUST $35.00 each!

45" Peacock Explosion Silk. Use it as a production silk, blendo silk, or background silk. When I produce mine, I ask the kids, "What kind of animal is this?" I listen to their replies, then say, "Who said turkey? Boy, if you think THIS is a turkey — I'm not eating Thanksgiving Day dinner at your house!" $35

45" Rabbit Ta-Dah Silk. We designed this new ORIGINAL rabbit to compliment any magic or clown act. He's got pizzazz and personality! Just look at him waving that magic wand and the hand posed for applause. That's the applause YOU will get when you make this professional magic rabbit silk appear in your show! Nearly four feet square! $35

45" Happy Elephant Silk. Is it Barnum's Jumbo before he got big? At least he's happy! Again a new ORIGINAL DESIGN, thanks to Ken & Mollie Johanson, giving the feeling of child favorites such as Dumbo and Horton. Tell the audience you're going to pull an elephant, not a rabbit, out of your hat. Then produce this guy! "Okay, sorry, it's just a baby elephant! I guess I'm a dumbo!" $35

Sponge Dog Bone

Goshman's giant bone for your dog, cat or rabbit! Use this one to reward your Magical Dog Arm Puppet! White, sponge, 12 inches long! Thrown me a bone!

Fetch! Pull it out as your magic wand — the kids will laugh out loud! Only $6.00

Sponge Tooth Brush

Another Goshman gem! This 14-inch sponge toothbrush comes in two colors: yellow handle and white bristles.

Brusha, brusha, brusha! Use in dental health shows! Brush your dog puppet's teeth! Brush your own teeth. Use as a magic wand; when you tap anything, it doesn't hurt because it's sponge! Big, big, BIG! And just $8.00

GIANT Mis-Made Silk Set

Let's try to make an American Flag. Put a red and a white 12" silk into the bag, but drop the 12" blue on the floor. When you pull the flag out, it is red & white only — and it's a huge 24 x 36 inches (yes, 2 x 3 feet)! Put it back into the bag with the missing blue silk & next time it comes out, it's a 2 x 3 ft silk with stripes in the corner field and blue w/white stars on 3/4th of the flag!

Kids go crazy over this! Finally with magic you repeat the process and end with a 24 x 36-inch proper American Flag.

Most dealers sell this flag set for $35-45. I have secured from Goshman a few dozen "second" sets at a bargain price. On the two flags, the blue field is NOT as dark as normal. But they look FINE ON STAGE! And the truth is: the blue silk you drop is NEVER SEEN at the same time as the finished production. So if you want a very good NEW set of GIANT MIS-MADE FLAGS (three 2 x 3-ft flags plus three 12" red/white/blue silks) — here is your bargain: $25.00!

Ring Vanishing Hank

Excellent, well-made 18" square gimmicked pocket hank. Put a borrowed ring up under it and have spectator hold the "ring" through the hank. Meanwhile, you sneak the real ring away and make it appear elsewhere. When you pull hank out of person's hand, the ring is gone. Especially made for this trick! $6.00

Giant Jumbo Deck of Cards

Here is the largest full deck of cards every offered in magic! This is a full regular deck of 52 cards plus jokers in size 8 x 11 inches! You read that right. Every card is about the same size as a sheet of typewriter paper! What big magic you can do with this HUGE DECK of playing cards. Only $12.00.

Martin Gardner's SCIENCE MAGIC

A new Dover reprint of the 1997 book. This includes lots of neat tricks & puzzles you can use for entertaining and educating children. Excellent drawings on virtually every page. Make an egg turn somersaults, spin a coin so it lands heads, teach a bear to climb a string, and lots of other acts of science wizardry!

Just $6.00

Multicolor Rope Fusion

Show three long pieces of rope, two each red/white/blue, held in one hand. With a simple move, you suddenly pull the ropes apart and they form a LARGE CIRCLE of red/white/blue ropes like a wreath. Self-working, easy, astonishing!

A bargain at $5.00!

Check www.GinnMagic.com for SPECIALS on homepage!

Magic Safari

Show these nine ANIMAL cards one by one, asking spectator to remember one. Then hand that person the cards and have him transfer a number of them from top to bottom. When you spread them out on the table, you can immediately identify the person's ANIMAL, even though face down. Easy to do! You could even make it bigger for stage or parlour work. Full color cards and instructions! Only $3.00.

Giant Bouquet from 3 Silks

Show three large silken cloths empty one by one. Put them together, reach underneath, and pull out a HUGE BOUQUET of feather/cloth flowers. This uses the same method as "This" bottle production, a silk bag holding the bouquet inside one large silk. Bouquet is 20" tall and contains 19 multicolored blooms! Yes, it's BIG! A custom feather bouquet this size would run over $100! You get bouquet, 3 large silks, gimmick, and instructions — all for just $49.00!

Magnetic Pip Card

We've all done What's Next, the spot card trick. Now here's the same trick with a real playing card PIP CARD ... in RED diamonds! Show 3 diamonds on one side, four on the other, one on the other, and six on the back. Do the same routine but you end up with eight red diamonds on the 8 x 11 inch metal card. Good instructions! Only $15.00!

Pet Store Pranks

(Jam Magic/Dave Mitchell)
This is THE END of this trick! Dave no longer makes them, and I managed to get seven at the FCM. Each has a slight blemish on the interior pet store picture; audience will never notice it and you can fix with with a black marker. Show colorful Pet Store folder inside. Then show 8 x 10 heavy animal cards: dog, cat, fish, parrot, snake. Turn snake backwards (I cover it with a bamboo placemat) and SNAKE VANISHES, leaving a Question Mark (?). Then snake picture pops out from behind Pet Shop folder, just like in Farmyard Frolics. Kids go wild telling you "There's the snake!" Reg new price $65, but these are selling on Ebay at $85! Take one of these NEW good seconds at just $39.00!

Mysterio's Encyclopedia of Magic & Conjuring

Puppets in Ginnville!

Blue Monster (He Eats Flowers)

Kids adore this loveable monster puppet — especially when he repeatedly eats your blooming blossom flower. Did he do it? He says NO, but the audience kids say YES! But at the finish, he can even make the flower blossom reappear on the stem! Also he loves to pull handkerchiefs out of your pocket to make the kids laugh. (He watched my Woof! Woof! DVD.) Lots more you can do with the BLUE MONSTER to make kids laugh & play!

Size: 18-in tall. Body 10-inch wide. Arms 12-in from body. Lightweight, packs small, plays BIG!

He's NEW! He's BLUE! He's only $35 alone OR just $39 with a blooming blossom!

Call this little guy the new bunny on the block... a white, soft plush bunny puppet that looks like the real thing! Hey, already I am personally using him in my pre-school show: I make him dance around, then magically change him into Harry, my REAL LIVE RABBIT! The kids simply love it! Some kids even think he's real! Just slip your hand into the back of him, into his arms and head. You can make him wave, pout, dance, say his prayers, hide his face, even lie down on his back. Except for the bowtie (remove it!) HE LOOKS REAL! And the price includes a 14-page book of uses, tricks & ideas! $15
